

“The Impact of Child Abuse and Neglect on Adoption Success”

This course will present to participants the expectation for professionals to report child abuse and neglect. It will spell out who are mandatory reporters according to the law. The requirement for a Permanent Plan according to the Adoption and Safe Families Act (ASFA) will be discussed, the legal means of “freeing” children for adoption, and efforts to seek adoptive homes for children. The idea of open versus closed adoption will be discussed.
