

“Special Needs Advocacy: Make a Difference for Children’s Future”

Participants will learn what advocacy means and the importance of advocating for children. They will learn about the key concepts and hot issues involved with the special education process. There will be a discussion of gifted students who are also learning disabled. Participants will learn the differences between a 504 plan and an IEP and when each may be appropriate. They will review the stages of the IEP process and the importance of each individual stage.
